

Table of Contents

Introduction . . . . .	7
Heino Nyysönen: Jerusalem. Nations and Their Others: Memory and Political Tourism . . . . .	9
Eda Derhemi: Kosovo's Mitrovica. The Symbolic Paradise of an Ethnic Apartheid . . . . .	25
Michał Łuszczuk: Ceuta and Melilla. Divisions in the Shadow of a Border Fence . . . . .	49
Anna Potyrała: Sarajevo. From the Ashes of Conflict to Cold Coexistence . . . . .	62
Marcin Galent: Belfast. An Ambiguous Heritage in a Difficult Neighborhood . . . . .	76
Przemysław Osiewicz: Nicosia. Conflict and Cooperation in the Divided Capital City . . . . .	88
Cezary Trosiak: Opole. A Stranger at Home. A Study of Inter-Group Distance . . . . .	98
Thomas Lundén, Anders Mellbourn, Joachim v. Wedel, Péter Balogh: Szczecin. A Cross-Border Center of Conflict and Cooperation . . . . .	109
Jarosław Jańczak: Gorizia-Nova Gorica. Between Unification and Reunification . . . . .	122
Thomas Lundén: Valga-Valka, Narva-Ivangorod. Estonia's Divided Border Cities – Co-operation and Conflict Within and Beyond the EU . . . . .	133
Magdalena Musiał-Karg: Słubice-Frankfurt (Oder). Cooperation in a Divided City on the Polish-German Border . . . . .	150
Agnieszka Wójcicka: Copenhagen-Malmö. Different Sides of Integration in a Hybrid City? . . . . .	167
Tomasz Brańka: Tornio-Haparanda. A Unique Result of Neighboring Towns' Collaboration . . . . .	191

Alexander Tölle: Berlin. Urban Imagery in a Former No-man's Land - the Wall Strip Two Decades Later . . . . .	205
Tom Vandenkendelaere, Lien Warmenbol: Brussels. Cooperation in Theory, Conflict in Practice? . . . . .	220
Emilia Palonen: Helsinki. A Divided City? . . . . .	239
Monica Bajan: Luxembourg. Multiculturalism Revisited - The Case of the Labor Market . . . . .	257
Personal Notes . . . . .	271