

Table of contents

Preface.....	1
THOMAS WÜNSCH
Introduction.....	3
KRISTINA WITTKAMP
Border identities, “transborderness”, and “transculturality”: Theoretical suggestions for historians (not only) of Eastern Europe	17
THOMAS WÜNSCH
1. Constructing identities.....	37
Constructing Identity through Language – Inner-German Mental Maps.....	39
KLAUS KERSCHENSTEINER
Business Cards of a Nation? How monuments reflect border identities shown on the example of 20th century Silesia.....	59
KATHARINA SKRIPIN, BORN GANCARCZYK
2. Transculturality and Urban History.....	91
Between Imperial Loyalty, Zionism, and Assimilation – The urban Jewish milieu in Lviv, Kraków, and Chernivtsi, 1867 – 1918.....	93
GABRIEL DEUTSCHER

The voiceless heritage.
Polishness in Habsburg Czernowitz
as part of an integrated urban history. 123
ANDREAS KRUZEL

3. Milieus, Actors, and Identities 141

Peripheral Elites – Nobility in Bukovina around 1900.
A Project Draft 143
DANIEL LALIĆ

National Identity in the Carpathian Region:
Historical and Cultural Transformations (Case of Bukovina) –
A Statement..... 153
VOLODYMYR FISANOV

4. Remembrance and spatial representation 165

Historical remembrance and Medievalism in the Principality of Halyč-Volyn’ 167
KRISTINA WITTKAMP

Frontier Identities in the System of International Security:
Lessons of the late 20th – early 21st Centuries..... 199
NATALIIA NECHAIEVA-YURIICHUK

Conclusion..... 223
KRISTINA WITTKAMP

Notes on Contributors 225